Don Swanson, owner of Aoljan Development in Palm Beach, says today's pools have classic shapes, fountains.
For his lovely waterfront home, Swanson chose a pool into a light blue, like the water in the Bahamas. "I finishes are Diamond Brite, basically ground up granite, and can be colored," he has brought kitchen out to the too, including sophisticated Viking and Garland gas ranges, Thermador ovens and Sub-Zero refrigerators in one summer kitchen.
Another pool feature gaining in popularity is the Rocked deck. The method pushes the water up over the edge of the into a bit to circulate. The drawback is that look that today is in the water. "It's beautiful, but it's for the back," Galloway says.
Growing homes from Deck Day to further, the following six pools and outdoor areas observed the best in work as well as classic treatments — for estate resorts.
